

Name: Mary Honohan

IJCC Position: Director

From: Dublin, Ireland

Industry: Professional Services and Chartered Director (CDir)

About:

I am a Chartered Director (Institute of Directors) and a Fellow of the Irish Tax Institute. In 2024 / 2025 I was awarded the Institute of Directors (IOD) Diploma in Company Direction (Dip IOD) and the IOD's Chartered Director (CDir).

Up to October 2024 I was a Partner in the International Tax Practice of PwC Ireland where I had more than 25 years' experience advising public and privately owned groups across the US, the UK, the EU and Japan on Irish and international tax. Throughout my career, I engaged with a wide range of clients in the Pharma and Medical Device, General Manufacturing, Energy and Renewables and Retail and Consumer Goods Sectors. A key focus of my professional life involved representing PwC and the interests of Irish business at an international level. I travelled to Tokyo many times on business during my career at PwC.

I was a member of the board of the France Ireland Chamber of Commerce, and I was President / Chair of the Board of the Irish Tax Institute in 2015 / 2016. From 2021 to 2024 I was the PwC Ireland named member for the Japan Chamber of Commerce.

I am seeking to build a portfolio of non - executive director roles.
